The playhouse “Houo-za”

Originally built in the premises of the local Hie Shrine, Houo-za has been relocated to its current location in 1827. With both of the hanamichis equipped with their own revolving stages, Houo-za is a typical example of old Ji-kabuki playhouse structure and has high historical and cultural values. The theater is strongly reminiscent of the fun and excitement that ordinary people in the Edo period must have had at Ji-kabuki performance (designated as Gifu Prefecture's Tangible Folk Cultural Property).

鳳凰座 1827年に地元の日枝神社から移築された鳳凰座は、両花道に回り舞台を備えた典型的な芝居小屋の造りを残す貴重な財産で、今も、江戸時代の庶民の楽しみであった芝居の情緒を味わうことが出来る場所です。(岐阜県有形民俗文化財)
